Morning unveils "Oh Yeah": an energetic pop song, seventies vibe

Morning (#legroupemorning) is back in the spotlight with a new single: Oh Yeah (Danse la Vie, Chante l'Amour). Available from June 12 on all digital platforms, this energetic pop track with a Seventies vibe is already shaping up to be a must-have for the summer and the months ahead.

With “Oh Yeah” choruses punctuating every line of an instantly catchy chorus, the lyrics and melody sweep you up in a wave of good cheer and an irresistible urge to sing and dance.

Alexandra, the band’s lead singer, delivers her usual elegant performance, bringing a dazzling intensity to the song.

An ode to life and love

Written by Carole Send and composed by Albert Palombo - the band’s songwriter and composer - the song joyfully celebrates life and love, which we must cherish.

We are very proud of this new track, Oh Yeah (Danse la Vie, Chante l'Amour). Given the rather heavy atmosphere we're currently experiencing, we wanted to use the music and lyrics of this song to bring a sense of lightheartedness that celebrates life and love,” explains Albert Palombo, the band’s founder.

A distinctive musical style and strong sound identity

With Oh Yeah (Danse la Vie, Chante l'Amour), a track that blends power and lightness, Morning reaffirms its unique identity: a masterful blend of electric guitar and pop, reflecting a musical approach that is both accessible and sophisticated.

Morning's signature guitar solos give each of their songs a unique dynamic, while the rhythm section infuses them with contagious energy.

The band also stands out for its powerful and expressive female vocals, which lend each track a distinct emotional intensity.

Having already made a name for themselves with the release of their album Hors-Champ in November 2024 - and last year’s release of their two latest singles, Suivre Son Étoile and Tout me revient, which have been hugely successful on YouTube (each garnering over 1 million views on their artist channel) - Morning have established themselves as a key player on today’s music scene.

An expected release

The Morning band, known for their creative performances and rich musical universe, promises a nice surprise with Oh Yeah (Danse la Vie, Chante l'Amour). A song that will undoubtedly resonate with many fans of good pop-rock news.

🎵 Oh Yeah (Danse la Vie, Chante l'Amour) is available from June 12 on all streaming and download platforms, with a video clip on their artist's YouTube channel that fully reflects the Seventies vibe of the song.
